Down by the Salley Gardens my love and I did meet. She passed the Salley Gardens with little snow white feet. She bid me take love easy as the leaves grow on the tree. But I being young and foolish with her would not agree. In a field by the river my love and I did stand. And leaning on my shoulder she laid her snow white hand. She bid me take life easy, as the grass grows on the weirs. But I was young and foolish, and now am full of tears.
